NOTES AND COMMENTS

The year 1929 showed an increase in revenue from amusement tax of $25,000 over 1928. The month of October is the most popular for theatre-goers and February is the worst.
There are 150 theatres operating in the province.

An indication of the effect of the falling wheat market, it is estimated that in the Lethbridge railway division alone, the drop of 30 cents on wheat in the last three months, has meant a reduction in the purchasing power of the farmers of more than $10,000,000.

The Legislature announces that the recent cuts advertised in prices of liquor are not to be considered as "bar-tain day" inducements, or any specially alluring proclamation. The liquor commissioner has merely passed on to the consumer, certain small price concessions made by manufacturers.

Local Dramatic Society Scores Another Success

"The Arrival of Kitty" is well received by Large Audience
—Two Nights

Thursday and Friday of last week
the Vulcan Amateur Dramatic Society made a decided hit, in the Vulcan theatre, in the presentation of the three-act farce by Norman Lee Swartout, entitled "The Arrival of Kitty."
The play is modern, and deals with complications arising from the misunderstanding of a will.

The scene is laid at a summer hotel in the mountains of New York state.

By the terms of her father's will,
Jane is supposed to marry Benjamin Moore, an old friend of his, who was sent for from Italy where he was then staying. An uncle William Winkler, takes Jane and her old-maid aunt to the summer resort to keep the former away from her young lover, Bobbie Baxter. While waiting for the arrival of Benjamin Moore, Aunt Jane tells her brother, William Winkler, that she will give him ten thousand dollars to find a suitable husband for herself. Bobby traces the party to the hotel where it transpires that he has been impersonating leading lady characters in several Yale productions. Winkler receives a photograph and letter from an actress (Kitty) with whom he has been carrying on a secret flirtation. Ting, Bobbie's friend, finds the letter and photograph and shows them to Bobbie, who decides to impersonate Kitty and thus secure the happiness of Bobby and Jane. Moore arrives, and is mistaken by Winkler for a man whom he has sent for, on behalf of Aunt Jane, from a matrimonial agency. The real Kitty arrives, and amusing complications follow, during which it is discovered that the clause in the will referred to Aunt Jane and not to Jane herself. Thus Moore marries the aunt Bobbie marries Jane, and they all

"live happily ever after."

The cast was:
William Winkler Mr. W. H. Scott
Bobbie Baxter Mr. Guy Denbigh
Benjamin Moore, Mr. F. L. Simington
Ting Miss Del McQueen
Aunt Jane Miss Agnes Spence
Jane Mrs. Harold Buck
Scrette Miss Marion Hartford
Sam Mr. P. B. Bischer
Kitty Mrs. Jack Wolfe
From the initial rise of the curtain until the climax of the last act the audience was kept in an uproar of laughter.

Costumes, lighting and scenery were, alike, excellent, and the presentation was in every way a credit to the society responsible for its production and to the artists who, one and all, showed marked ability to portray the various characters which they had undertaken.

RESULTS OF ELECTION MARQUIS MUNICIPALITY

to fill three vacancies on the council

Neil Campbell, Richard Brodick and Steve Williams will serve on the new council.

A plebiscite was taken, on the same occasion, as to whether the municipal office shall be moved to Milo, to Queenstown, or remain in the present location. The votes recorded in the matter were:

For Milo 256

EASY COME—EASY GO

A much debated question in the mind of everyone at present, is whether or not there is such a thing as "easy money." Whatever may be said of Wall Street and large centres, it does not appear that Alberta offers much encouragement in this regard. Easy money is hard to come by and whatever wealth has been attained in this country has been for the most part from hard labor. There have been booms and "unnatural waves of prosperity," but the real, lasting money has been that which has been earned. It is this money and this labor which have brought Alberta its solid advance. Prairie has been converted into wheat lands, towns and cities have developed to meet the needs of the grain growers—all representing hard labor and all enduring.

While the present stock upheaval has affected every industry and almost every individual in Alberta, yet the solid values of Alberta still exist.

While few who had any margin of income, remained aloof from stock speculation, yet there were many earning just enough for daily needs, who could raise only wistful eyes to the lure of easy money. But they too, along with the wildest speculators are being caught in the crash. Unemployment is serious, development is hesitating. In the country districts many farmers, through no fault of their own, are confronted unexpectedly with a tragic money shortage for spring work.

It is a crisis which calls for cool wits, and confidence can best be restored by the governments, the banking institutions, the moneyed interests. The man with the welfare of the country at heart, must carry on, else much that has been won will be lost.

And in the meantime, many time worn puritanic old adages are forcing their everlasting truth upon Albertans in general.

"There is no such thing as easy money," "A penny saved is a penny earned," "Waste not, want not," "Easy come, easy go," "Honest money is earned money."

And day unto day addeth knowledge.

ONTARIO JUSTICE

In one police court, a young man was sentenced to five years in jail for stealing chickens. In another police court, a father who strapped his two-year old girl unmercifully with the buckle end of a strap, because she was ill and couldn't eat, got sixty days. If the chicken stealer was deserving of a five year sentence, then, according to the degree of crime the child beater should have suffered death by slow torture. Magistrates clearly don't see eye to eye.

ANOTHER MILESTONE

Fifty-five years ago an Irish student—so the story goes—came to Canada, and got his first job as an engineer. Today, the same man sits at a sturdy mahogany desk on the fourth floor of the Montreal "Power" building and controls many millions of dollars worth of actual and potential wealth.

He has never granted a newspaper interview and abhors publicity. Yet his name is a household word in Canada, and graces the directorates of Canada's only billion dollar corporation, The Royal Bank (of which he is president) and the Canadian Pacific Railway. In addition he is financially interested in some 150 leading corporations, embracing every conceivable type of Canadian business.

This week he celebrates his seventy-fourth birthday. His name, of course, is Sir Herbert Holt—Financial Post.

VITAL INDUSTRY

Upon no other branch of wealth production is Canada so dependent as upon its farming, and of its farming industry the chief staple product is the wheat. Anything that happens to depress the wheat market is harmful to Canada. Had the wheat pool not been liberally financed, so that a substantial advance per bushel could be made to its members, the effect of its action on Canadian trade and industry would have been very damaging. But of course the holding would have been impossible had not banks, on the security of the grain held, provided the money to keep business going at a fairly good price—Mail and Empire.

ALL LOVE MYSTERY

There is one comfort in reading an English mystery story in which hidden stairways, false walls and secret rooms prevail. Noting like that can ever happen in any of our houses, because there are no hidden stairways and no possibility of "double walls." One thin wall and you are outdoors. There isn't even a chance of a secret dungeon. Everyone knows to the square inch just what is in his house. And speaking of mystery stories their popularity is spreading. It is doubtful if there is one woman's magazine being published, which isn't running at least one hair-raising mystery serial. The gentle women just eat them up.

NEWS COMES FASTER

A new step has been taken in rapid transmission of telegraphic news to Western papers. The Western Canada relay point for Canadian press dispatch is Winnipeg, while Calgary handles the circuit to Lethbridge, Vancouver and Victoria.

The Morse operator has been replaced by an automatic machine which tumbles words into the daily papers at the rate of 60 words a minute, or 20,000 words in an 8-hour shift.

This gives much speedier service to the papers and the average news reader should be duly impressed with the realization that in every minute of the day news can be delivered to him at the rate of 60 words a minute—good news and bad.

VARY ON COCKTAILS

British medical men differ as to the harmful effects of alcohol. Dr. Dale director of National Medical Research admits that a cocktail might give appetite to a man laboring under mental tension and help him as little else could, to enjoy eating. On those who earn their living by unskilled use of muscle, Dr. Dale believes that a moderate use of alcohol has little effect. But he declares that tests reveal an adverse effect produced by alcohol on those whose work of either muscle or brain is skilled.

Sir George Newman of the department of health, however, declares in condemnation of the cocktail.

HE QUALIFIED

The Customs Department, Ottawa, recently received a letter from a resident of the Yukon, asking a permit to enter a sport rifle at Customs, imported from England. The letter read: "I am not an alien; am British born and a returned soldier. I am not a Bolshevik, Anarchist, Socialist, Communist, Prohibitionist or Liberal." He got his permit.

Remember the McCormick-Deering Tractor school at the International warehouse, Lethbridge, on March 5th and 6th. You are invited.

Let us quote you prices on the Noble wheat packer. We sold quite a few last year and they gave great satisfaction.

(Would be husband) Do you think it unlucky to marry on Friday?

(A Husband): "Sure. Why should Friday be any exception?"

TRACTOR BARGAINS
We have a couple of used 15-30's taken in trade for our new tractors. We will guarantee these tractors to be in good shape. See us for prices & terms.

One bad thing about these houses with futuristic furnishings is that you can't tell whether you're home or just drunk again.

Our 22-36 McCormick-Deering tractor is the greatest value offered to the trade today. Extremely simple, as near fool proof as can be made. Ask one of the seventy-five users in the Vulcan district, every one is a satisfied user. If you want the most for your money buy a McCormick-Deering

The old woman entered the room where her husband lay on his bed of sickness.

"What is the matter?" asked the old man.

"Why," she said, "I just went into the vicarage to tell them you weren't any better and they wanted me to bring you a bottle of wine."

"Have you brought it?" asked the sick man.

"No, not me, indeed! I heard the vicar's wife said it had been in the cellar since 1900, and when she offered it to me I just walked off without a word. We don't want the nasty stale stuff."

49 DAYS FOR TAXES

That is What the Average Canadian Contributes in Shape of Taxes

When we read that the average Canadian works 49 days of the year to pay his taxes, we are disposed for a few minutes at least to scrutinize state expenditures more carefully, and wonder if there are any hired hands that we could get along without.

Grattan O'Leary in Maclean's magazine has his figures all worked out. The average income of Canadians gainfully employed is $1590 a year. Out of this, $214 goes for taxes, with $115 to the Dominion, $36 to the provinces and $63 to the municipalities.

Some of this tax paying is painless and automatic, more especially the toll to the Dominion government, but it is inescapable.

The only way in which it can be avoided is for a man to sit in another man's house, wear nothing, eat nothing, drink nothing and do nothing. The moment he dresses, eats, drinks, or stirs round outside, he begins to pay.

It is a process which begins with the registering of infants birth certificate and ends with the 25 per cent on his imported coffin and imported tombstone (if imported as they often are). After death also, the succession duties of the province may have a sting.

There are 1200 commodities on the customs tariff alone. Nothing escapes. If you consume tea, there is an excise duty of 7 to 10 cents a pound, other staples accordingly. Every time you buy cigarettes for two bits, the minister of finance gets 15 cents. When you buy a car you pay 25 per cent, to 28 per cent, duty which goes to the Dominion. The provinces then take their slice with the license, and 5 cent gas tax.

To be sure the people are demanding new services all of which cost money. In provinces and municipalities there are many new developments. In provincial taxes, more than half of present day expenditures go for items and services which did not exist a generation ago.

Maternity centres, infant welfare, workmen's compensation, care of tuberculosis, scientific and industrial research, old age pensions. It is as Grattan O'Leary says, an age of "paternalism with a vengeance."

Putting it tersely, wage earners and salaried people, may figure that they work for the first 26 days of January for the Dominion, from then till February 10 for the municipality, and continue till February 19 giving up three wages to the province.

On February 19 they may commence working for themselves.

NITRO EXPLODES

Terrific Explosion at Valley When 250 Gallons Nitro Explodes

The explosion which occurred last Tuesday night at Turner Valley and which many High River people felt, was the result of an explosion of 250 gallons of nitro glycerine at the Royalite 23 on the hill above Calmont camp. Contrary to report, the nitro was not in the well, but was stacked in the auxiliary engine house, which is about 100 feet from the drill house.

The men had run some steam hose through to the engine house, in order to bring the nitro to the desired heat.

About 1.25 a.m., Wednesday morning, the driller thought the steam was going down. As he stepped to the engine house to look things over, he noticed a hissing sound as if a can might be leaking. At the same moment, he thought he saw a spark, and instantly turned back, calling to the boys who were in the "dog house," back of the drill house to run.

The outfit got about 75 yards from the derrick when the explosion took place. They were thrown forward on their faces but were not injured. The force of the explosion destroyed the two legs of the derrick nearest the engine house. It fell over in that direction and was wrecked. A kelly pole weighing about two and a half tons was hurled about 200 yards. Under the floor of the engine house in which the explosion took place is a hole five feet by 10 feet and four feet deep, driven into the frozen ground. Miraculously no one was injured, and though every one in the Valley was convinced that the explosion had occurred next door, yet no serious damage was reported.

OBITUARY

William Valentine Turpin

Funeral services were held on Tuesday, February 18 in the Brant United Church, for William Valentine Turpin of Brant, aged 38 years. Mr. Turpin succumbed to acute pneumonia after one week's illness, passing away in High River on Friday, February 14. He was born in California, but has lived in the Brant district for 13 years and was highly respected.

Rev. J. J. Farquhar conducted the funeral service, with the choir leading in the music. The pallbearers were Messrs. W. M. Auld, Ed. Auld, George Bateman, D. Bell, K. McLean and I. V. Law.

After the service, the remains were forwarded to the parents of the deceased who live in Portland, Oregon, where interment will take place. E. L. Shodgrass was in charge of arrangements.

PRESBYTERY MEET

The fourth annual meeting of High River Presbyterian, held in High River United Church on February 19 was exceedingly well attended considering the road conditions. Some societies were unable however, to send representation because of the roads. Delegates were present from Nanton, Cayley, Aldersyde, Tongue Creek, Turner Valley, Blackie, Okotoks, Claresholm, Granum and High River.

The president, Mrs. Locke of Nanton, called the meeting to order. Devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. Rannie with Mrs. Netze leading in prayer. Mrs. W. A. Lind extended to the visitors a cordial address of welcome, to which Mrs. Peacock of Turner Valley responded.

Interesting reports were given of junior auxiliary work including Mission Bands, Baby Bands, C.G.I.T. groups and the associated societies of Champion, Ensign and Stately.

The address of the president, Mrs. Locke was accorded close attention. Mrs. Locke's theme was "Peace and the world progress toward that ideal." Women's Missionary Societies may create within their groups a real atmosphere of peace, and Mrs. Locke urged especially the peace ideal in the junior organizations as these are the future arbiters of world conditions.

Luncheon was served by the ladies of High River organization, in the United hall.

At the afternoon session the church was filled with delegates and with friends from town and country.

Mrs. Dinnon of Granum opened the program with scripture reading.

The address given by Mrs. Farquhar of Calgary, on the "Price of Leadership," commanded great attention. The speaker instanced many leaders, commencing with Christ, and the price which they had paid for their convictions. Yet hundreds of years after, they receive their tribute. As an old Manitoban, Mrs. Farquhar dealt interestingly with the pioneers of church work in Western Canada and the price they had paid to pave the way for the modern church. She prayed for a leader to solve the present unemployment tragedy and emphasized the work that must be done to welcome the stranger to this land.

Another interesting speaker during the afternoon was Mrs. Alexander, a missionary home on furlough from Japan. She spoke on the wonderful work accomplished by the mothers of Japan under Christian influences and sketched short histories of the accomplishments of leading Japanese women.

Presbyterial officers gave reports of various departments. Mrs. Ringrose of Claresholm spoke of the splendid contributions from various points of the Presbytery. More than $3600 which was the allocated sum, had been raised by the Presbytery. For this year the various societies signified their determination to raise similar sums: High River $650.00; Cayley $300; Blackie $200; Aldersyde $185; Tongue Creek $150, etc.

Mrs. McIrvine in reporting on Mission Bands stated that the banner which had been held by Vulcan for two years, this year would go to the Tongue Creek Mission Band as having showed greatest progress. Reports of donations to Home Mission Work were very satisfactory.

A charming little play was presented by the local Mission Band, with Mrs. Davidson and Miss McDougall assisting in adult parts. Mrs. Montgomery sang a solo, while Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Ryan gave musical selections.

The officers elected for 1930 will be given in next issue.

Dr. Collip of Montreal, who was associated with Dr. Banting in discovering insulin, has made a new discovery of a drug which is likely to prove extremely valuable in treating women patients.

A BEAUTY PROBLEM

Calgary is in an unfortunate position. The Bank of Montreal is prepared to erect a $1,200,000 ten story bank and office building at the corner of 8th Avenue and First Street West. But the Town Planning Commission can not decide whether or not ten storeys would be too high for beauty. Unless the Commission can decide at once whether or not it wants the ten storey building, the Bank of Montreal will go ahead and erect something much smaller at about half the cost.

If the Town Planners do not agree to the ten storey project they are going to be unpopular in Calgary.

PREMIERS CONFER

Although the result of the Conference of the three Western Premiers regarding the Wheat Pool situation, comes as no surprise, yet it is reassuring to the great prairie public. The central selling agency gave fullest information concerning their financial and sales position. The government representatives found that the Pool has been operating in conformity with the aims and objects of the organization. Legislation has been agreed upon by the three provinces which will be introduced immediately. It will be uniform in spirit, and will supplement the guarantee given the lending banks to finance adequately the balance of the crop of 1929.

The Solloway, Mills offices in Lethbridge were closed last Saturday and all business suspended.

RULES FOR SMOKERS

One must never smoke a pipe in the streets. One must never smoke without consent, in the presence of a clergyman; nor offer a cigar to an ecclesiastic. If you smoke or are in the company of smokers, you must change your clothes before entering the presence of ladies. A host who asks you to smoke will usually offer you an old coat to smoke in. Never smoke in another person's house with out leave, and do not ask leave, if there are ladies in the house. Always smoke any cigar given you, making no remarks as to whether it is good or bad.

These are from the book of etiquette for smokers published in 1860. No wonder so many resorted to quiet plugs of chewing.

SHOULD BE A LAW

Here is Where the Senate Should Exercise its Prerogative

"Half an inch, half an inch, half an inch lower, With her knees hidden how will a boy know 'er'?"

When President Hoover is obliged to come forth with the unqualified statement that his administration refuses to take any responsibility for introducing long skirts, it is time the Canadian government brought forth some edict as to long or short.

Although the matter might very properly be brought under the head of Natural Resources, the Provincial Governments have shown no eagerness to make any declaration. So it will be up to the Dominion. Doubtless Hon. R. B. will be all for protection—all skirts longer and stronger. Premier King on the other hand has a chance to show his Liberty, while something extremely radical should be expected from the Ginger Group.

Just what the view point of the Senate will be, is a question. But it may be remarked in this connection that only one man in the States has been known to vote for long skirts and has eyesight hasn't been very good anyway since back in 1918, so he doesn't count.

One of the current magazines issues the warning that if something drastic is not done, to curb this backward tide, it will be no time till fustles will be back to bustles, corsets hair rats, flannel petticoats and balloon sleeves.

Field-Work Power

Spring work comes with a rush—you need power, sure, certain power, hour after hour, day after day, you need it steadily, incessantly from the first furrow to the last seed. The more work to do the quicker you must do it. The more acres to plow, the more land to work—the more your profits of this year's operations depends on POWER.

Put a CATERPILLAR in your fields. On the side hills, through loose summer fallow or heavy soft spots it will work harder, steadier, surer, with less trouble and at less expense than any other form of power you can use.

WANTED MORE HOGS

Wanted—more hog growers. With a good market established in Britain for Canadian bacon, not one pound of pork products has been exported in 1930. This is the first time that such a condition has occurred in 40 years.

While Canadians themselves are consuming practically all the bacon produced in this country, yet there is demand for quantities more. The production though increasing is not keeping up with available market. During the past five years, one million more hogs could have been marketed each year, at approximately $25 each, than were available.

Farmers are overlooking a real source of revenue and breeders have failed at a time when opportunity offers.

It is of little avail pressing the merits of Canadian bacon upon the British market, and establishing a demand, if there are not sufficient hogs to supply the demand.

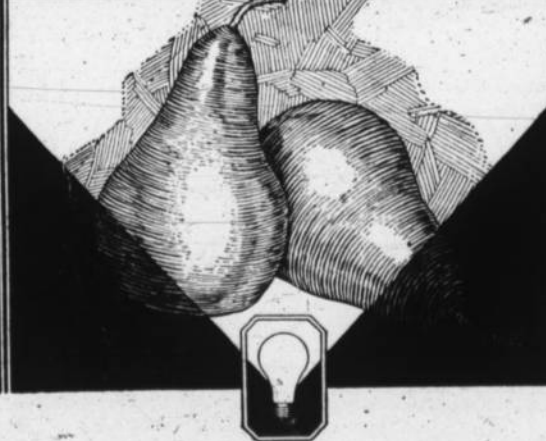

ITEMS OF INTEREST

A total of 3484 teachers were trained in Alberta Normal school during the past five years. Superannuation of teachers is now being considered.

There are no grounds upon which government action can be taken on the death of Mrs. Ruth Olsen at Edmonton. So states Attorney General Lymburn and Hon. George Hoadley. Mrs. Olsen is the woman who died as a result of a towel being sewed up in her after an operation.

Partially as a result of the death of Mrs. Ruth Olsen in Edmonton who died as a result of towel being sewed up in her, causing blood poisoning, it is likely that new surgical regulations may be introduced. Hon. Hoadley thinks that these regulations should be framed to make the surgeon performing the operation solely responsible for the actions that take place during the operation and for the complete check up of instruments, towels, packs and swabs used before and after the operation.

NEW STOCK RULES

At the conference of the provinces in regard to stock legislation, recommendations were made for drastic regulation in all stock dealings. It is likely that all the provinces will follow up the recommendations in order that Uniform Frauds Prevention Acts may prevail in Canada.

The chief suggestion was that a wider interpretation of bucketing be enacted by the federal government with a maximum penalty of seven years; that brokers be prohibited from trading against their clients; that brokers furnish clients with written confirmation of each transaction, setting forth the quantity purchased, the price, time of day, name of broker from whom it was purchased and to whom sold; that when a stock is fully paid up by a client, it be held in trust for him; that before a stock is listed more care be shown in determining the financial condition of the company, and that a bill be introduced by the federal government setting forth that companies operating within a province shall be liable to the security laws of the province.

CRAVES ITS HOCKEY

The hockey fans of the city of Yorkton are taking time by the forelock. During the season just closing, the Yorkton puck chasers did not meet with any great success, and a meeting of citizens was called last week to discuss the matter. Out of the meeting came the fact that Yorkton wants a winning team for next year and is willing to go to considerable trouble to achieve that end. The average gate all this winter was only 589 people, not enough to keep a team going.

An executive is formed of the business men, to take over hockey. An accurate check will be kept on all finances and every transaction will be on a business like basis.

An effort will be made immediately to retain the players of the 1930 season, and a definite attempt made to secure positions for them.

A subscription list was formed, which immediately promised $1600 for next season's hockey. This will be used as reserve account and only shows that Yorkton wants its hockey.

GOOD 1930 OUTLOOK

An optimistic index of the outlook for 1930 is provided by the Canadian Bank of Commerce which states that work now definitely projected in Canada will entail expenditure of $1,000,000,000 of which $500,000,000 will be spent in 1930.

There are gains in Alberta, British Columbia and Saskatchewan building projects for the coming year, while Ontario building falls about 18 per cent. below last year.

MARGIN WELL MAINTAINED

George McIvor, general sales manager of the Canadian Wheat Pool asserts that the Pool's margin is still well maintained in spite of the drastic drops of this week. The Pools have on deposit with the banks, collateral valued at more than the required 15 per cent. in excess of the present bank loans to the Pool.

Premier Bracken of Manitoba announced that the government is still firm in its stand back of the margin required on Pool loans.

NEW FUEL POOL

A new co-operative purchasing organization may be formed in Alberta for the purchase of fuel and lubricating oils. The members of the Co-operative council in session at Edmonton after going into the matter thoroughly, have empowered a committee to mobilize the purchasing power of consumers of fuel and lubricating oils through the province. It is estimated that probably 250,000 farmers representing a purchasing power of about $3,000,000 annually in fuel may join this pool.

YEAR ROUND SPORT

There is no need for a sport lover to be out of a job these days, with marbles being played on every floor and every sidewalk. The hockey fans who have been fancying themselves as experts on off-sides and so on, should round out their sport education with a little study of the strenuous game of marbles. Once they learn the intricacies of plunkers, fan-ers, kickins and these technical terms, the good old railbirds can get a world of excitement in rooting for a nice fast game of marbles.

Then after that, they can follow up the horseshoe contests.

PENSIONS ACT CHANGE

General Curries, speaking on the subject of pensions, says: "Our aim must be to see to it that no man who went to the service of his country must be permitted by that country to suffer want because of war disability. I contend that almost every man who experienced the hardships of war is paying some penalty. His resistance powers have been impoverished and many of the breakdowns coming comparatively early in life are surely attributable to war service. I am confident the Canadian Government will welcome any assistance in its power to deal justly with all claims."

RAGE CUTS LIFE

Lose your temper and you shorten your life. Flying in a rage poisons the brain, strains the heart, unstrings nerves. A bad temper and good health cannot permanently go hand in hand. In the days of one-man organizations violent tempers were more common than they are to-day. In the modern organization the fiery-tempered individual is out of place. Harmony oils the machinery of business; discord casts sand into the gear box. Temper kills team-work. Therefore, for the sake of the health of your business, don't let your temper get out of control. An uncontrolled temper is as destructive as an uncontrolled engine.—Forbes Magazine.

RED CROSS DEFICIT

Drastic Curtailment Necessary Unless Public Gives Customary Support

At the annual Red Cross meeting held in Calgary, last year's operations showed a deficit of $13,500.00, and with no capital fund to draw from. In spite of drastic reductions, the Alberta division is facing a deficit of $5000.00 at the end of 1930, unless the revenue can be increased.

Splendid work has been shown by the Commissioner for 1929. One hundred and eighty crippled children were treated in Calgary and Edmonton and $31,000 spent on crippled children's work. These children came from 97 points in the province, representing twenty nationalities. The Junior Red Cross showed an increase of 6000 members, totalling 38,000 in 1460 branches. The three aims of Junior Red Cross are health, citizenship and service, and are truly admirable.

The outpost hospital at Pouce Coupe had 224 admissions in 1929. An infinity of splendid work is being accomplished and if the Alberta Division fails, it is the first province in Canada to break the continuity of work. Ten cents a head of the Alberta population would be sufficient to carry on the Red Cross work undiminished—but the trouble is to get the ten cents. Everyone at all interested, should contribute the $1.00 membership fee.

MINING INDUSTRY

The president of a large National Bank of Chicago was under criticism by the president of several other banks because of his investments in gold, silver and copper mines, says the Republic Journal. He made the following reply to the criticisms:

"In the mountainous regions, ages ago, God Almighty built stronger vaults in His granite banks than we have in ours. He filled His vaults with gold, silver and copper. He gave the prospector knowledge and insight, and guided him on his way to the door of the vaults he had built. The government handed him a title to all therein. It is not a crime, but a virtue to enter. With drill, pick, shovel and spade the prospectors have broken the combination locks and entered. 'Mining' will be producing millions in gold, silver and copper in that future day when National Banks are unknown."

"A mine contains a crop already raised, harvested and on deposit for you to check against at your pleasure."

"The wealth gathered from the mines immortalized by King Solomon."

"Mining made Great Britain the world's commercial dictator."

"Mining has made the United States the richest country in the world."

"Mining has transformed more men into millionaires and raised them to positions of honor and trust than any other business."

SMALL FAIR VALUE

The speakers who addressed the High River Agricultural members last week, expressed themselves in favor of the country fair. Mr. Carlyle strongly advocated the value to a district of a neighborhood occasion of this nature.

Following modern tendencies the agricultural exhibitions are tending to become centralized in cities. These city exhibitions are of a very high order, as a rule; but perhaps for that reason, they attract a relatively small number of entrants, compared with a dozen little country fairs.

Many a man is reasonably proud of his products, and would gladly exhibit them at his own district fair but is not ambitious enough or confident enough or eager enough to enter a big show.

For this reason and for others the small fair has distinct value. It establishes neighborly competition, neighborly contact, and neighborhood pride. It provides an intimate personal interest distinctly lacking in the mammoth exhibitions where only the kings of their craft can compete successfully.

There is room for some time to come, both for big city exhibitions and the district events. The social, educational and community value of the rural fair must not be overlooked.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Farmer members have been getting after Hon. George Hoadley, asking for more agricultural agents.

The news is going round that Canada may be asked to sink her navy in the interests of world peace. That isn't going to create much excitement with most people.

For the re-assurance of the woollen manufacturers and sheep growers, it is pointed out that although women are wearing fewer clothes than they were a few years ago, they unquestionably have far more clothes and the recent amazing demand for sport clothes, sweaters, golf hose and swimming suits has certainly helped the wool trade.

Does Man Settle Up or Down?

WHEN man reaches that stage in his existence where the "urge for home" dominates his thoughts he is suffering the first stages of the "settling down" process. He begins planning a house and all that goes with it, and realizes that before he can settle down and become a Solid Citizen he must "settle up."

Now this "settling up" business should be indulged in at regular intervals by most of us. There's always some little account that if not paid promptly when notice is sent, will be allowed to stand indefinitely. One of the most unfortunate in this respect is the subscription to the newspaper. The amount is small and comes due once a year; so it is easily forgotten. But when a thousand or two subscribers "forget" the publisher is in a bad way and immediately has to put on pressure to collect the two dollar accounts.

There is one sure way of keeping "settled up" with your newspaper—watch the label every week. After your name the date on which your subscription expires is printed plainly. Pay it promptly when it comes due. Make sure of it NOW.
